

Code of Conduct for Children and Young People

Rowing for Young People

Rowing Ireland and Shannon Rowing Club (SRC) are fully committed to safeguarding and promoting the wellbeing of all of its members. We believe that it is important that members, coaches, administrators and parents associated with the sport should, at all times, show respect and understanding for the safety and welfare of others. Therefore members are encouraged to be open at all times and to share any concerns or complaints that they have about any aspect of the sport with the appropriate Designated Officer who for Rowing Ireland is Tom Fennessey (ROI). In SRC, the Designated Officer is Kevin Balfe and Children's Officer is Doireann Garrard.

Rowing Ireland and SRC should offer a positive experience to young people where they can learn new things in a safe and positive environment. As a rower within Rowing Ireland and SRC, you are expected to abide by the following code of practice:
